Reference: Brivar Construction

I am very pleased to give this personal reference on the firm of Brivar Construction and Mr. Craig Stockard.

I have been acquainted with Craig Stockard for over five (5) years and have worked with him on a number of construction projects. In the years that I have known Craig he has always been responsive to the customer's needs and extremely courteous, professional, and timely. He is an individual that truly understands the construction process and has tremendous experience in what it takes to complete any given project.

I believe that Craig would make a valuable addition to any organization that he is involved with. It is with extreme pleasure that I give this letter of reference to this firm and Craig in particular; who is hard working, extremely knowledgeable, and reliable and in whom I have the utmost confidence. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
